THE PRESIDENT: It grieves me at this point to ask the Clerk not to call the name of Delegate E. T. Miller. He will not be here. He is clinging tenaciously to life, but he will not be able to sign.

Knowing him as I do, I know that the proudest moment of his life would have occurred, had he been able to walk down that aisle and affix his name to that document.

I would ask all of us to stand and pause a moment.

(The delegates rose and observed a moment of silence.)
